PICKETT LIONS

HAPPY HOLIDAYS from the Pickett Lions! Our club is once again sponsoring the turkey dinners put on by the Community Center for Thanksgiving and Christmas. We are also sponsoring 3 families in need this year through different area service organizations. As you plan for this year’s family traditions, consider donating to those less fortunate.

Pickett Lions will host the Country Breakfast at the Community Center on December 11, from 8 am to 11 am. Come on by, say hi, and enjoy an awesome, all you can eat breakfast!

Deer hide collection continues through December. Drop off your hide at Cliff’s Tire or Log Cabin in Ripon, or at Jaspers in Pickett and help support the Wisconsin Lions Camp for Kids. We also have a donation bin for used prescription glasses at Jaspers, or you can pass them on to any club member.

If you’d like to learn more about our group, you are welcome to visit during our January 2 meeting, at Jaspers, at 7:30 pm.
